

A MATCH IS NOT A BID DECISION

Familiar work can still be the wrong fit.

Look first. Decide next. Write last.

A match is not a reason to bid.

ILLUSTRATIVE CONCEPT

GOVVICTORY

The work looks familiar.

01

That does not make it
the right pursuit.

A match is not a reason to bid.

ILLUSTRATIVE CONCEPT

Can every mandatory requirement be met?

02

If the answer is unclear, investigate before writing.

Why should the buyer choose this company?

03

A credible answer matters before proposal effort begins.

Can we price, staff, and deliver it?

04

Do not fill important gaps with guesses.

Good work needs
a repeatable plan.

The opportunity should earn the proposal effort.

A matching trade is only the first check.
